"Mayer's Office,

Austin, Tex., August 3, 1892.

To the Members of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Austin:

Gentlemen: I hereby call a special meeting of the City Council of the City of Austin to assemble in the Council Chamber at the City Hall at 5 o'clock p.m. this day, August, 3d, 1892, for the purpose of considering the question of repairing the bridge known as the Shoulder Creek bridge, and to appoint a Committee to confer with the Hon. Commissioner Court of Travis County, Texas, concerning said repairs.

John McDonald, Mayor.

1. P.M. Austin, Texas, August 3, 1892.

I hereby certify that Aldermen Anderson, Assmann, Glass, Graham, Hume, Jackson, Linn, Miller, Morris, Newton, Nitschke, North, P. Latt, Schneider, Schubel, Shelley, Suter, Townsend, Warmoth, Weyerman and Giller have each been served with a copy of the above, by reading it to them in person, and that Alderman Ketchum has been served by leaving a copy of the same at his place of business.

J. M. Latt,

City Clerk.

The Mayor presents the following:

Hon. John McDonald, mayor of the City of Austin:

On this - 2d, 1892, making the following communication of

July, 28th, in reference to the condition of the bridge over Bouldin's Creek on the San Antonio road, we beg leave to invite yourself and a Committee of the City Council to meet with this Court and decide what can be done in the premises for the preservation of the property referred to.
So that end we will call a special meeting at any day set by you, or meet you during our regular session next Wednesday.

Very Respectfully,

Jno. W. Brown,
President of the Board.

Alderman Schuber moved that a Committee of three be appointed to confer with the Commissioners' Court of Travis County Texas, with reference to repairing what is commonly known as the Bouldin Creek bridge and to report the result of such Conference to the City Council.

Aldermen Miller, Warmoth and Anderson entered the Council and answered to their names.

The motion made by Alderman Schuber was then adopted and the Chair appointed Aldermen Schuber, Nitchele and Weyerman as such Committee.

The Council then adjourned.

Milton Morris,
City Clerk.
